

You are invited to attend a
“Kick the Flu II”-Community Immunization Summit

Learn the latest news on San Diego’s flu season including:

- New flu vaccine recommendations
- Vaccine supply and resources
- Pandemic flu planning and preparation
- What can you and your organization do?

Who should attend:

community health agencies/centers, community-based organizations, chronic disease organizations, health plans, senior service agencies, and any other health professionals.

Thursday, September 21, 2006

8:30-11:30 a.m.

County Health Services Complex-Coronado Room
3851 Rosecrans Street, San Diego, CA 92110

Registration Form: Complete and fax to Joyce Morgan at (619) 692-5677 or email her at joyce.morgan@sdcountry.ca.gov by September 19, 2006.

Name: _____ E-mail: _____

Organization: _____

Address: _____ City: _____

Telephone: (____) _____ Fax: (____) _____

Please indicate your (1st) and (2nd) choice for the breakout sessions:

- _____ Pediatric Flu Protecting Our Children: Expansion of the CDC Recommendations
- _____ Health Disparities-how to target the High Priority Groups
- _____ Health Care Workers–innovative flu programs
- _____ Creative Flu Prevention Campaigns

For more information, please call Joyce at (619) 692-8388.

Generous continental breakfast will be provided!

This event is being coordinated by the partner agencies of the Education & Outreach Subcommittee of the San Diego County Immunization Initiative.